Changes in the sequence of the program listed above may be desirable. These must be made in consultation with the student's academic adviser.

Comprehensive Examination

Every student may fulfill the comprehensive examination requirement by submitting a senior thesis demonstrating mastery of the skills needed for independent study in history or by taking History 491 or 492, the advanced history reading program. These are senior seminar courses requiring the application of knowledge and skills presumably acquired through the major in history.

Special Programs

History majors are encouraged to participate in the University's Honors Program, taking Honors seminars and completing an Honors project in History during their senior year.

The Department of History offers course work and programs that covers a wide range of topics and skills. The department offers internships in area historical societies, museums and archives. The Department of History works closely with the Adolescent Education program and will work with students who wish to pursue History as a second major.

With its emphasis on reading, writing, analysis and synthesis, history offers an excellent program for students wishing to pursue post-graduate and professional degrees. Coursework in public history prepare them to enter fields such as historic preservation or museum work. Majors have gone on to pursue advanced degrees in history, public history, library science, business and many other areas. History is an excellent course of study for students interested in law school.

Further information on all of the above can be obtained from the faculty.
