E. Simone, Ph.D.

The Department of Visual and Performing Arts offers majors and minors in each of three areas: music, theater, and visual arts. The visual and performing arts are necessary elements in a liberal arts education. Whether we are creators or appreciators, the arts engage us in a dialogue of perception, imagination and reflection involving the entire range of human experience.

The arts give meaning to our lives, amplify our emotions and ideas, offer us a cross-cultural community, and allow us to bring deeper awareness and unique perceptions to any career.

Music (MU)

MU-101 CONCERT BAND (1 Credit)
Performance and study of original and transcribed literature for the concert band. Emphasis on ensemble and sectional rehearsals sight-reading and public performances. Audition may be required. May be repeated for credit.

MU-102 CONCERT CHOIR (1 Credit)
A group of mixed voices which studies and performs major choral works in addition to standard sacred secular music. More advanced students will be selected by audition to participate in the Chamber Singers.

MU-102A CHAMBER SINGERS (1 Credit)

MU-103 JAZZ BAND (1 Credit)
Performance and study of works arranged for standard jazz band instrumentation. Emphasis on ensemble and sectional rehearsals, basic jazz improvisation techniques and public performances. Audition may be required. May be repeated for credit.

MU-104 SMALL ENSEMBLE (1 Credit)
Performance and study of works arranged for various chamber ensembles (such as brass quintet, woodwind quintet, etc.). Public performances required. Audition may be required. May be repeated for credit.

MU-105 APPLIED MUSIC (1 Credit)
Private instruction in voice, piano, percussion and various other instruments. Previous experience in the performance area is required. Audition may be required. May be repeated for credit.

MU-111 UNDERSTANDING MUSIC (3 Credits)
The chief aim of this course is to help the student learn how to critically listen to music. Areas of study include: elements of music, important musical genres, major composers and 20th century music. Although this course emphasizes "art" music of western civilization, experiences with other types of music are also provided (e.g., jazz, folk, film music, etc.)

MU-111C UNDERSTANDING MUSIC (3 Credits)
The chief aim of this course is to help the student learn how to critically listen to music. Areas of study include: elements of music, important musical genres, major composers and 12th century music. Although this course emphasizes "art" music of western civilization, experiences with other types of music are also provided (e.g., jazz, folk, film music, etc.)

MU-121 MUSIC THEORY I (3 Credits)
A course designed to provide a workable knowledge of the principles involved in 4-part harmonization. Experiences are provided in reading and writing music, and creative activities. A basic understanding of musical rudiments is desirable, but not a prerequisite.

MU-122 MUSIC THEORY II (3 Credits)
Continuation of MU 121. Areas of study include: non-diatonic harmony, 20th-century theoretical/compositional principles (e.g., serialism, set-theory, etc.) and non-traditional music notational systems. Prerequisite(s): Take MU-121

MU-211 MUSIC HIST I: MUS. BEGINNINGS (3 Credits)
This course is designed to help the student discover the origins of Western music. This history of music will be traced from Ancient Greece and Rome, through Gregorian chant and culminating in the Baroque period (1750). Emphasis is placed on the contributions of leading composers and on the general style characteristics of the music.

MU-212 MUSIC HIST II: THE COMMON PRACTICE PERIOD AND BEYOND (3 Credits)
A survey of music from the Baroque through the Romantic periods. Emphasis is placed on the leading composers and on the general stylistic characteristics of the music. The chief aim of this course is to help students learn about the styles and composers of the "Common Practice Period": the Baroque, Classical and Romantic periods in music, culminating in the advent of music in the Modern Period. Emphasis is placed on the leading composers of each period and the general style characteristics of the music. Through lectures, reading, listening and discussion, students will gain insight into the compositional ideas of each period, as well as the historical events that affected the arts.

MU-212H MUSIC HIST II: CLASS/CONT-HON (3 Credits)
Restrictions: RG.HON

MU-213 MODERNISM AND POST-MODERNISM (3 Credits)
The chief aim of this course is to help students learn about the styles and composers of the 20th century and beyond. Through lectures, reading, listening and discussion, students will gain insight into the compositional ideas that created the chaos and controversy of Modern and Post-Modern music, and explore the historical events that affected the arts.
MU-221 COMPOSITION (3 Credits)
An introduction to the creative processes of composition. Techniques relevant to both traditional and contemporary compositional forms will be discussed and practiced. Performances of student compositions will be encouraged.

MU-231 JAZZ IMPROVISATION (3 Credits)
A laboratory course is designed to acquaint the instrumentalist with the art of jazz improvisation. In-class student performance will be developed and encouraged and classic recorded jazz solos will be studied and analyzed.

MU-233 ELEM. CONDUCTING (3 Credits)
The techniques of conducting both with and without baton. Techniques include metrical patterns, fermatas, cut offs, cues, entrances, tempi, moods, etc. Students will conduct both live and recorded performances. (Formerly MU 300).

MU-312 AMERICAN MUSIC (3 Credits)
A survey of music of the United States from European colonization to the present. Included in the course will be an overview of the music of Native Americans, the first New England school, the rise of American popular music, and the development of an American classical tradition. The course will culminate with the art music and mixed media of the 20th century.

MU-313 HISTORY OF JAZZ (3 Credits)
A survey of jazz from its earliest origins to the present. Emphasis is placed on the leading performers and their contribution to the development of the art form.

MU-314 HISTORY OF MUSICAL THEATER (3 Credits)
An overview of the American musical theater productions from the mid-nineteenth century to the present, with a concentration on the musical content of a number of individual musicals through recordings and videos.

MU-315 WORLD MUSIC (3 Credits)
A survey of music of other cultures through the concept of ethnomusicology. Music of Africa, Asia, the Near East, the Pacific and Latin America will be emphasized. Additionally, Native American and other non-traditional western music will be studied.

MU-315C WORLD MUSIC (3 Credits)
A survey of music of other cultures through the concept of ethnomusicology. Music of Africa, Asia, the Near East, the Pacific and Latin America will be emphasized. Additionally, Native American and other non-traditional western music will be studied.

MU-316 HISTORY OF ROCK & ROLL (3 Credits)
This course will be a historical overview of popular music primarily from the second half of the 20th century to the present. The course examines rock and roll in all of its forms, starting with the precursors of rock and roll and ending with current trends in the popular music scene. Changes in music production and distribution, evolutions of instrumentation and style and the advent of electronics and technology will be addressed.

MU-321 JAZZ ARRANGING (3 Credits)
Examination of melodic, harmonic, and rhythmic considerations in modern jazz band arranging. Students create original arrangements for a variety of instrumentations, from small groups to big band. Student performance of student arrangements is encouraged. Prerequisite: MU 122. 3 credits. Fall.

MU-399 SPECIAL TOPICS IN MUSIC (3 Credits)
A study of a specific topic in music, such as genre (opera, chamber music, etc.), composer or theoretical/compositional technique (counterpoint, arranging, etc.) as warranted by student demand. May be repeated for credit.

MU-399A SP TOPICS: MODERNISM (3 Credits)
MU-399B SP TOP: PIANO LITERATURE (3 Credits)
MU-399C SP TOP: iPAD MUSIC PRODUCTION (3 Credits)
MU-399D SP TOP: CHAMBER MUSIC LIT (3 Credits)
MU-399E SP TOP: MUSIC HISTORY MODERN (3 Credits)
MU-399EH SP TOP: MUSIC HISTORY MODERN HONORS (3 Credits)
MU-431 MIDI & AUDIO APPLICATIONS (3 Credits)
A course dealing with music and sound production using MIDI (Musical Instrument Digital Interface) and audio hardware within the concept of a Macintosh-based digital audio workstation (DAW). Students will learn to record, edit, process, mix, and distribute music and sound. MIDI and audio theory will be discussed and students will work with a wide range of software such as sequencers, editors, audio plug-ins, and software instruments.

MU-499 SENIOR MUSIC PROJECT (3 Credits)
Independent study or creative endeavor in some area of music under the supervision of music faculty. If the project warrants, public performance (i.e., recital) will be required. Faculty approval.

Theatre (THTR)

THTR-101 INTRODUCTION TO THEATER (3 Credits)
This survey course traces the development of theater production and performance through scripts and audiovisual documentation. The perspective is global and includes theater from Asia, Africa and Latin America as well as Europe and the U.S. Various styles of acting and directing are discussed, as is the development of various methods of staging and stage technology. The "who, how, what, when and why" of theater.

THTR-130 STAGECRAFT & THEATER TECH. (3 Credits)
This course is a lab in basic theater technology—set building, painting and finishing; lighting, sound, effects, prop making and maintenance, and costume. Emphasis is on participation and completion of lab assignments developing and implementing sets, props, and lighting for SBU Theater productions.
THTR-201 ACTING IN CHARACTER (3 Credits)
This is a lab course in creating characters for stage and other media in the body, mind and voice using exercises, monologues and some limited scene work from a variety of plays and other media. Emphasis is on increasing the individual student actor’s awareness and reactions to the emotional elements of character in monologues and two-person scenes. Memorization and rehearsal outside class are required.

THTR-211 HIST OF AMERICAN THEATER (3 Credits)
A survey of American theater performance and playwriting from early colonial works to the present, emphasizing the developments in the 20th and 21st centuries, including video and film versions of theater texts, and, when possible, trips to see area productions.

THTR-212 EUROPEAN THEATER HISTORY (3 Credits)
This course is designed to survey the texts and theatrical production of European theater from the Renaissance to the present, with emphasis on post 19th century production developments and texts. We'll read play texts, watch several videos and filmed versions of plays, and discuss the history and nature of various genres of European theater, and its influences in a theatrical rather than literary context.

THTR-230 THEATRICAL DESIGN (3 Credits)
This course is designed to teach the elements and history of set, lighting, costume and sound design and to afford students the opportunity to develop in a simulated or actual production setting. Using the skills and concepts from THTR 130, the student will learn to collaborate with the director in designing effective and creative elements that support the production concept, the actors and the text.

THTR-299 PRACTICUM IN THEATER (1 Credit)
Credit for student work in faculty-directed SBU Theater season productions, either in tech and on-stage performance. Student must successfully audition or interview for SBU Theater production at the beginning of the semester and complete all required rehearsal/run assignments and shop hours. May be required for credit.

THTR-301 ACTING IN ENSEMBLE (3 Credits)
This is a lab course in creating characters for stage and other media using ensemble exercises and scene work for multiple actors from a variety of plays and other media. Emphasis is on increasing the student actor’s awareness and reactions to the emotional give and take and changing relationships within scenes involving more than two actors. Memorization and rehearsal outside class are required.

THTR-333 ACTING FOR THE CAMERA (3 Credits)
This is a lab course in developing the specific skills needed to create character for the camera. Emphasis is on in-class scene and monologue work, and exercises designed to work specifically for the camera. Memorization and rehearsal outside class are required.

THTR-334 ACTING STYLES & MOVEMENT (3 Credits)
A lab course designed to help the student actor develop the techniques used in creating character for various genres of theater--farce, Restoration and 18th century, high comedy, Shakespeare, et. al. Emphasis on period movement, use of props, gesture, and integration of character with text. Memorization and rehearsal outside class are required.

THTR-335 VOICE & DICTION FOR ACTORS (3 Credits)
A foundation lab course in developing safe and effective techniques for voice production in character. Emphasis on healthy projection, clean articulation, control of regional dialects, and finding the emotional voice in the text through sonic exploration, Memorization and rehearsal outside class are required, as is the practice of vocal exercises.

THTR-337 SPECIAL TOPICS IN THEATER (3 Credits)
This course is designed to provide the theater major the opportunity to explore aspects of theatrical production and scholarship of special interest to the student, through research, rehearsal, and written documentation. The course may also take the form of physical exploration of valid movement, design or acting concepts or techniques not covered in established theater courses; but of benefit to the student's overall educational goals and objectives.

THTR-379A SP TOP: THEATER MAKEUP/HAIR (3 Credits)
THTR-379B SP TOP: DEVISED THEATER (3 Credits)
This course is designed to provide the theater major the opportunity to explore aspects of theatrical production and scholarship of special interest to the student, through research, rehearsal, and written documentation. The course may also take the form of physical exploration of valid movement, design or acting concepts or techniques not covered in established theater courses; but of benefit to the student's overall educational goals and objectives.

THTR-401 DIRECTING (3 Credits)
A course in the basics of directing for the stage including dramaturgical research and text preparation, character analysis, developing a ground plan, dealing with set and light design, blocking, auditioning, and rehearsing. In-class scene work allows students to direct each other and develop skills collectively. Outside rehearsal may be required.

THTR-412 SHAKESPEARE IN PERFORMANCE (3 Credits)
This course is designed to explore the techniques and historical approaches to performing and producing Shakespeare's plays on stage and in the cinema. The goal is to help the student understand a phenomenological, practical and aesthetic differences between reading a Shakespeare play and doing one. Acting and design elements are discussed and demonstrated through in class viewings of filmed and live performances, and possible field trips to view Shakespeare productions. Can be taken as Honors course.

THTR-412H SHAKESPEARE IN PERFORM-HONORS (3 Credits)
This course is designed to explore the techniques and historical approaches to performing and producing Shakespeare's plays on stage and in the cinema. The goal is to help the student understand a phenomenological, practical and aesthetic differences between reading a Shakespeare play and doing one. Acting and design elements are discussed and demonstrated through in class viewings of filmed and live performances, and possible field trips to view Shakespeare productions. Restrictions: RG.HON

THTR-413 SHAKESPEARE IN PERFORM-HONORS (3 Credits)
This course is designed to explore the techniques and historical approaches to performing and producing Shakespeare's plays on stage and in the cinema. The goal is to help the student understand a phenomenological, practical and aesthetic differences between reading a Shakespeare play and doing one. Acting and design elements are discussed and demonstrated through in class viewings of filmed and live performances, and possible field trips to view Shakespeare productions. Restrictions: RG.HON
Visual Arts (VA)

VA-101 ART & ITS APPRECIATION (3 Credits)
This introductory course is designed to give the student a working understanding of the meaning of art and its influence and application in our lives. Thorough attention will be given to the problems of artistic expression, content and form in two- or three-dimensional works of art. By examining the role of the artist we study arts implications, influences, visual language and interpretation by contemporary society. Periodically, original works of art from the St. Bonaventure University art collection will be used to develop the student’s critical awareness of individual discernment when engaged with the visual arts and images.

VA-101C ART & ITS APPRECIATION (3 Credits)
This introductory course is designed to give the student a working understanding of the meaning of art and its influence and application in our lives. Thorough attention will be given to the problems of artistic expression, content and form in two- or three-dimensional works of art. By examining the role of the artist we study arts implications, influences, visual language and interpretation by contemporary society. Periodically, original works of art from the St. Bonaventure University art collection will be used to develop the student’s critical awareness of individual discernment when engaged with the visual arts and images.

VA-111 DRAWING I (3 Credits)
This course is designed as an introduction to the creative process and its function for expression through the visual arts. All drawing media will be treated as a means of developing powers of observation, technical skills and understanding of the formal aspects of line, space, form, perspective, value, design and composition. Image surveys and group critiques will be included to further the student’s understanding of the visual language of art (Formerly FA-465). There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-121 PAINTING I (3 Credits)
This course offers an introductory experience, both theoretical and pragmatic, into the nature and varied purposes of painting. Mediums explored will include acrylic on canvas and watercolor and mixed-media on paper. The emphasis will be on discovering the properties and expressive components of composition, value, color and content. The formal elements of art as visual language will be approached through objective and non-objective means. Preparatory and conceptual studies in drawing media will be included. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-131 SCULPTURE I (3 Credits)
This studio-oriented course will introduce students to the theories and processes of sculpture. The course will emphasize three-dimensional design theory, terminology, principles, and techniques. Class participants, therefore, will learn to recognize the sources of design, apply the elements and principles of design, research the potential of various design media, critique designs using design terminology, and analyze design choices in problem solving. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-141 CERAMICS I, HANDBUILDING (3 Credits)
This course will introduce students to various handbuilding methods; pinching, coiling, soft slab and hard slab, as well as different surface enhancements. Students will also learn about glazing and firing ceramics into a finished product.

VA-141A CERAMICS II (3 Credits)

VA-141B ADV. CERAMICS III (3 Credits)

VA-151 PRINTMAKING I (3 Credits)
This course will introduce students to the printmaking techniques of monotype, linoleum block, wood block, calligraphy and silk-screen. Students will also learn how to prepare how to prepare their prints for presentation. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-161 TWO-DIMENSIONAL DESIGN (3 Credits)
Design means to plan, to organize. The design student plans the arrangement of elements to form a visual pattern. Through a series of visual problems developed by the student and instructor, the student will be required to depict creative visual specific solutions using the design process. The student’s creativity will be enhanced through his/her originality, imagination and ability to resolve visual problems with unusual solutions.

VA-162 THREE-DIMENSIONAL DESIGN (3 Credits)
This is an introductory course concerning the conception and production of three-dimensional art. Students will be given design problems to solve with readily available materials and basic techniques. Students will explore the aesthetic and practical considerations of working in the round.

VA-171 THE IMAGING JOURNAL (3 Credits)
The healing qualities of both journal writing and image making are joined together in creating an Imaging Journal. The intimacy of the sketchbook format allows images to surface from memory and imagination. Guided explorations in monotype, watercolor, and collage offer an enriched form of language. Experiments in design, color, composition, sequential imaging, visually expressive text, and artists’ methods and materials are included. This course may be especially useful for students contemplating vocations such as fine arts, graphic design, education, theology, expressive therapies and the healing professions. No prior art skills are required. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-181 BLACK & WHITE PHOTOGRAPHIC IMAGES (3 Credits)
This introductory course engages and investigates the aesthetic qualities of the black and white photographic image including design, composition, positive/negative space, tonal elements, line, and texture. The course addresses issues of content and subject matter through a survey of several master photographers that will involve student research. Students will also explore aesthetic principles by shooting several rolls of black and white film documenting the particularity of their own lives at St. Bonaventure University and aspects of the neighboring communities.
VA-201 ART HIST: ANCIENT CIVILIZATION (3 Credits)
This course introduces students to the ancient peoples of early civilizations. The first of a three-course sequence in survey format, we study the development of images in painting, sculpture, and architecture from antiquity through the middle ages. Course content focuses on major images of the Stone Age, Near East, Egypt, the Aegean, Greece and Roman cultures, followed by the early Christian, Byzantine, Islamic, and Gothic traditions. Lectures, discussions, and student research projects are presented that concern how art reflects culture, and is informed by social, political and religious influences.

VA-201C ART HIST: ANCIENT CIVILIZATION (3 Credits)
This course introduces students to the ancient and often mysterious peoples of early civilizations. Lectures and discussions concerning how art reflects their culture as well as social, political and religious influences will be presented. We study such cultures as ancient Mesopotamia, Greece, Egypt, the Far East and the Roman Empire, followed by the early Christian, Byzantine and Gothic traditions. Interdisciplinary lectures, slides, student research and a museum visit will be part of the course content.

VA-202 ART HIST: EARLY RENAISS/ROMANT M (3 Credits)
Master and transitional artists from the late 14th century through the 19th century form the main content of this, the second course of the three-course survey sequence. In general, this course studies major realistic images in two- and three-dimensional formats. Development of art movements in the western artistic tradition, combined with innovations in art production of the time, help the student identify influences upon succeeding art movements and then artists’ intents while executing their works. Movements include Renaissance, Baroque, Rococo, Romanticism, and Modern art of the late 19th century. Students use analytical and contextual analysis as the main tools of the contemporary research methods, which are presented in this course. Frequent visits to the St. Bonaventure University Art collection, which is housed in the university’s The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts, give students a unique opportunity to study original works of art, their preservation, conservation and restoration.

VA-211 DRAWING II (3 Credits)
This course is designed as a continuation of Drawing I. Students will further develop their technical skills and understanding of the drawing medium. Color will be introduced to the student with emphasis on life and figure drawing. Image surveys and group critiques are an integral part of this course. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

Prerequisite(s): Take VA-111

VA-221 PAINTING II: INTERMEDIATE (3 Credits)
This course offers theoretical and pragmatic explorations in painting on an intermediate level allowing students to choose acrylic paints or to engage in a special focus on the use of oil paint. Advanced representational and expressive investigations into selected content such as still life, portrait, figure, landscape, and abstraction will be engaged. A variety of mediums, techniques and methods will be covered including blending, glazing, and dry brush. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

Prerequisite(s): Take VA-121

VA-231 WATERCOLOR & AQUA MEDIA (3 Credits)
This course offers basic introductory explorations in the creativity of water-based media. Studies in black and sepia inks introduce concepts of value and composition. A variety of approaches and subjects will be explored in full color with watercolors and acrylic inks including still life, landscape, figure, and creative abstraction. Students will assemble a large album of their own highest quality pieces. Attentive mastery of basic techniques and the development of a personal creative vision will both be emphasized. Prerequisite: any VA 100-level studio course or portfolio review. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.
VA-341 MODERN ART & THEORY (3 Credits)
Modern art can be confounding precisely because it challenges traditional artistic practices and aesthetic categories. Nevertheless, the immense surge of creative energy unleashed by the innovative techniques and radical aims of the avant-garde are still not exhausted. In this course we examine the development of modern art from its emergence in the 19th century to its dominance in the 20th century. Emphasis will be placed on key artists and movements from the first half of the 20th century responsible for the most distinctive features and claims of the avant-garde. We will also attend to the theoretical implications of these claims for understanding the meaning(s) of artistic modernism.

VA-351 THE FIGURE IN ART (3 Credits)
This course focuses on the figure as a source of inspiration and investigation into the human form. Students will work weekly directly from a live model supplemented through slide lectures and visits to the galleries of The Quick Arts Center. Students will undertake a progressive and integrated study in both wet and dry media that will embrace work with gesture, contour, mass, value, proportion and composition. Paraphrase sketchbook studies after master artists will assist the student in an awareness of major figurative works throughout the history of art. No Prerequisite, but portfolio review by instructor is advised. There is an additional course fee, commensurate with the materials provided for student production.

VA-351H THE FIGURE IN ART-HONORS (3 Credits)
This course focuses on the figure as a source of inspiration and investigation into the human form. Students will work weekly directly from a live model supplemented through slide lectures and visits to the galleries of The Quick Arts Center. VA-352 IMAGES OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI (3 Credits)
Franciscan iconography is examined within the context of artistic developments over time, and Franciscan documents that address the curious phenomenon surrounding the representational images of Francis of Assisi. Comparisons of diverse images of Francis will be the focus of our inquiry that reveals a visual history often based in Franciscan literature, yet uniquely aligned with the discipline of secular painting of the time. Post-Reformation images of Francis of Assisi are examined chronologically for content and context as they relate to the continued growth of the Franciscan Order. Iconographical elements of images of Francis that reflect the Franciscan lifestyle are compared and contrasted with images of the secular world of the same time periods, as secular iconography aggressively exerts its influence and tradition upon Franciscan themes and patronage.

VA-361 INDEPENDENT STUDY (3 Credits)
Research in selected topics in art. Designed to allow the student to probe areas of specific interest which lie beyond the coverage normally found in regular course offerings. Faculty approval required.

VA-361A ADV. INDEPENDANT STUDY (3 Credits)

VA-361B IND ST:ART IN MARKETING (3 Credits)
Research in selected topics in art. Designed to allow the student to probe areas of specific interest which lie beyond the coverage normally found in regular course offerings. Faculty approval required.

VA-399 SPECIAL TOPICS IN ART (3 Credits)
This course offers students the opportunity for advanced study in either a discipline currently offered at SBU (e.g. drawing, painting, sculpture, art history, etc.) or in an area not currently covered by existing art courses (e.g., mixed media, performance art, video, etc.) in preparation for graduate studies or the workplace. In the former instance, this course may be taken only after the student has met the core requirements of a particular discipline.

VA-399A SP TOPTRAD OIL PAINT/ST TECH (3 Credits)
VA-399B SP TOPASIAN ART & CULTURE (3 Credits)
VA-399C SPECIAL TOPICS IN ART (3 Credits)
This course offers students the opportunity for advanced study in either a discipline currently offered at SBU (e.g. drawing, painting, sculpture, art history, etc.) or in an area not currently covered by existing art courses (e.g., mixed media, performance art, video, etc.) in preparation for graduate studies or the workplace. In the former instance, this course may be taken only after the student has met the core requirements of a particular discipline.

VA-401 ADVANCED SEMINAR (3 Credits)
This course is a seminar for majors in art history that is designed to engage students in the exploration of theoretical questions and critical perspectives that bear on our understanding of visual art and culture. Although the specific approaches used may vary, the basic aim of the Advanced Seminar is to address the issues and assumptions informing contemporary debates regarding the visual image. Topics may include the concept of representation, the notion of style, the relation of form, content, and context, and the role of theory in art.

VA-402 CAPSTONE PROJECT (3 Credits)
This is an independent project in art history designed by the student in conjunction with a faculty mentor who approves and guides it. The capstone project is intended to provide majors the opportunity to develop a topic of special interest within art history during their senior year. In particular, it will enable students to deepen their grasp of the techniques, methods, and materials pertinent to their respective concentrations within the major. The projects may vary widely from researching and writing a thesis to creating a gallery exhibit. The result of the project will be publicly presented and evaluated by a faculty committee. The course is required for the art history major.

VA-403 Art History: Capstone Project (3 Credits)
This is an independent project in art history designed by the student in conjunction with a faculty mentor who approves the design and guides its execution. The capstone project is intended to provide majors with the opportunity to develop a topic of special interest within art history during their senior year. In particular, it will enable students to deepen their grasp of the techniques, methods, and materials pertinent to their respective concentrations within the major. The projects may vary widely from researching and writing a thesis to creating a gallery exhibit. The result of the project will be publicly presented and evaluated by a faculty committee. The course is required for the art history major.

VA-488 QAC GALLERY INTERNSHIP (1 Credit)
The Student Gallery intern will function in a manner similar to a curatorial assistant. The intern will attain a working knowledge of gallery planning, procedures, and ethics as defined by the mission statement of The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts. Duties will be determined by the center’s upcoming exhibition schedule. Responsibilities will be defined by the Assistant Director of the Quick Center and may include the following: exhibition planning and research, exhibit construction, installation and signage, assisting with accompanying arts education programming, maintenance of exhibitions and the dismantling of exhibitions. Additional opportunities to work on traveling exhibitions and collections may be made available to the intern. Through the internship the student will gain a firsthand knowledge of the workings of a museum. Required: four hours per week.
