

BONA (BONA)

BONA-101 INTRO TO ST. BONAVENTURE (3 Credits)

This course will introduce the characteristics and functions of community and diversity, and explain how students belong and thrive at St.

Bonaventure. The course will also teach students about effective learning strategies and aspects of college preparation and career development. By exploring facets of St. Bonaventure's mission, and what diversity, equity, and inclusion mean, students can engage in better-informed dialogue about their roles as citizens of the world. This course is for students in their first semester of college. Students who withdraw from or fail the course are required to retake it every successive fall and spring until they pass the course.
